Papal visit to Philadelphia

September 25 – 28, 2015

There are only a few seats left for this trip so if you are interested please call: 724-2206 and speak to the Croswell representative instead of calling me (Doris, I will be escorting the trip) that way you will be sure to get registered quickly.

Day 1 This morning we will depart on a journey that you will likely never forget with fellow travelers anxious to see Pope Francis. We come to rest this evening near Lancaster, Pennsylvania where an included dinner will end our day. (D)

Day 2 Breakfast will begin the day before an early departure to Philadelphia. The Festival of Families Celebration will take place today and Pope Francis will participate in this international celebration of family, community and faith. We will spend the day joining in this joyful, global celebration of support and love. This Festival will broadcast a main stage program of music and will celebrate with us during this time, both to enjoy the show and to listen to six families from different continents briefly describe their joys and challenges. The Holy Father will respond with compassion and words of wisdom for all of us, speaking to those present at the event (more than a million) as well as the additional millions participating through remote viewing. In addition to the main stage, there will be a second stage and exhibits. The second, smaller stage will feature performances throughout the day by many cultural groups, educational institutional, and spiritual organizations. Performances by Andrea Bocelli, Juanes, and the Philadelphia have been confirmed. Pope Francis will speak from Independence Hall area this afternoon and from Benjamin Franklin Parkway this evening. (B)

Day 3 NOTE: Each person will receive a Croswell folding chair for the event

Breakfast starts your day before attending a local mass, then departing for Philadelphia. You may want to set your chair up on Benjamin Franklin Parkway to prepare for Pope Francis' 4:00 p.m. Mass to conclude the world meeting of Families.

Day 4 After our included breakfast we depart for our return trip home, filled with renewed understanding and appreciation for Pope Francis and his international mission of love and hope.

Note; Be advised that it is assumed there will be a considerable amount of walking and standing throughout this trip.

GACL NEWS

The German Heritage Museum opened its doors in September 2000, Fifteen years ago. Many visitors from near and far have marveled at the one of a kind displays, most of the brought over by immigrants. Without this Museum these items would be lost or scattered. Thanks to the efforts of Mike and Nancy Pelzel a Heritage Walk was established with many commemorative pavers. Kolping members and others are well represented. If you do not yet have a paver, please consider buying one or more. The cost has not changed since 2000; a 4" x 8" paver costs only $ 35.00, an 8" x 8" paver costs only $ 50.00. On the smaller paver there is room for three lines with up to 14 characters per line. On the large paver is room for six lines with up to 14 characters per line. Call or E-mail me for your order or any questions. Manfred Schnetzer (513) 923-3743 E-mail: moschnetzer@fuse.net

Kolping History Update

So far, 428 copies of the Kolping history book have been purchased with more orders coming in every day. This number is far more than we ever expected. On September 1st, the book will be submitted to the publisher. It is expected that the publishing process will take eight to ten weeks to complete, making the books ready for distribution sometime around the middle of November. If the timing is right, a notice of the pick-up dates and times at the Kolping Center will be included in the November issue of the Bulletin. If not, we will contact each person by e-mail or phone. A Sunday afternoon and an evening at the Kolping Center will be set up for people to come and pick up their books. Those who have requested their copies be mailed can just watch their mailboxes at the end of November, though these people will also be notified of the approximate mailing date. Thanks again for all the contributions of information from so many that made the history more complete and for the words of encouragement during this process. Your confidence in us is most appreciated. Contact us if you have any questions.

SPORTS CLUB

Our first annual picnic was a success. The dedications were very emotional for all players and parents. There were about 350 in attendance and we are beginning to make plans for next year’s picnic.

The soccer season has begun for most of the 21 teams. We had 3 teams participating in their first tournament already this season. The American Cup Tournament is coming up so the teams are practicing for the season and also the tournament.
